WAR FOR CONTROL.

Fish Strikes First In I. C. Fight.

Gets Temporary Injunction Against Union Pacific and Harriman.

Restraints Them from Voting Third of All Stock of the Road.

Deposed President Asks Order Compelling Sale of Their Shares.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Mr. Fish said today, after the granting of the temporary injunction:
"I have all along been satisfied with the manner in which things were moving. I have never been obliged to seek proxies by claiming a majority, and I shall not do so now. No one can foretell the issue of a contest which is still in the future."
The stockholders at home and in Europe are fully alive to the issue and are sending their proxies by the hundreds. I have every confidence in the outcome of the proceedings relating to the injunction.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A coup was sprung by Stuyvesant Fish in his fight to gain control of the Illinois Central Railroad when late today he petitioned for and secured an injunction restraining his enemies in the great war of railroads from voting at the meeting Wednesday the stock of the Illinois Central held by the Union Pacific and allied subsidiary companies.
The order, which was issued by Judge Farlin Q. Ball, runs against E. H. Harriman, the Illinois Central Railroad Company, the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, the Union Pacific Railroad Company, and the Railroad Securities Company of New Jersey.

The defendants are enjoined from voting 25,000 shares of the Illinois Central, pending the meeting of stockholders which is to take place at the Park Row Station.
The writ was secured by Mr. Fish, W. H. Emrich of Chicago, John A. Kasson, ex-Senator, George B. Edwards, of Vermont. The plaintiffs appeared in person before Judge Ball. They furnished a $10,000 bond, which the court required.

The entire history of the contest for the control of the Illinois Central is set out in the main body of the writ. It is that the Union Pacific is prevented from building the former railroad into its gigantic system.
SALE OF STOCK DEMANDED.
Aside from the temporary injunction granted, a final decree is asked declaring the Union Pacific and the Railroad Securities have no power, under the laws of Illinois, to own stock in the Illinois Central. It was also asked that these companies be directed to sell their stock in the Illinois Central within reasonable time.

The petition charges an unlawful scheme of the Union Pacific Railroad Company to control the commerce of the United States by buying large blocks of stock in the present transportation companies. It also set forth the facts stated in a recent report of the Interstate Commerce Commission in regard to the transactions of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and E. H. Harriman.

It sets forth the names of corporations whose stock it is asserted the Union Pacific has bought, among them the Chicago and Alton, Illinois Central, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Chicago and Northwestern. It charges these four companies own and operate parallel and competing lines both in and outside of the State of Illinois, and that it is unlawful for the Union Pacific Company to own and vote stock in such parallel and competing lines.
SECRET ACQUISITION.
It is also charged that the acquisition of the Illinois Central by the Union Pacific, which took place July, 1906, was concealed from the public, and was first brought to light by the investigations of the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is alleged in this connection that up to this day not one share of the Illinois Central has been registered in the name of the Union Pacific, but still stands in the names of the clerks and brokers of Kuhn, Loeb & Co.
It is further charged that, in the effort to get a large percentage of the stock of the Illinois Central as possible, the Union Pacific violated its charter in buying the stock of the Railroad Securities, which held as its only assets, $5,000 shares of Illinois Central.
The charge is made that 15,000 shares of Illinois Central stock, belonging to the Railroad Securities Company, were transferred a few days before the Illinois Central books closed by a sham transaction to E. H. Harriman, and

AMERICAN AERONAUTS READY FOR BIG RACE.

NOTED AERONAUT READY FOR RACE.

LINCOLN BEACHY REACHES ST. LOUIS WITH HIS BALLOON.

In His "Beachy" He Will Contest the One-Mile Dirigible Balloon Race Following the International Events—McCoy and Chandler Will Go Up Today.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lincoln Beachy, considered the greatest airship operator in America, arrived in St. Louis yesterday with the dirigible balloon "Beachy," the first balloon of the six of its class which will be entered in the one-mile dirigible balloon contest in this city Oct. 21, following the international balloon races here next Monday.
The airship is being erected at the ascension grounds of the Aero Club of St. Louis, near Forest Park, and it will be protected from probable storms by a tent until the day of flight.
Charles J. Strobel, of Toledo, Ohio, who is also to enter the dirigible balloon contest, is expected to reach St. Louis tomorrow or Wednesday with his balloon "The Strobel." The framework of the dirigible machines will be erected as soon as possible after their arrival here and all will be protected by tents.

The German contestants in the international balloon races for Monday afternoon will reach St. Louis tomorrow afternoon. In the party are Capt. Baron H. von Arbedon, Carl Ernst, Joseph and Hans Heidemann.
J. C. McCoy, pilot, and Capt. Chandler of the United States Signal Corps, were unable to make their ascension this afternoon. The ascent will be made tomorrow afternoon. The balloon to be used by Mr. McCoy in the preliminary ascents made for experimental purposes is the "Psyche," a small bag of 25,000 cubic feet capacity. The capacity of the balloons which will be used in the international races Monday are of about 75,000 cubic feet.

Alan B. Hawley of New York who will pilot the balloon "The St. Louis" in the international races, will make a trial ascension following that of McCoy tomorrow afternoon if the weather is favorable. He will probably use the balloon of Leo Stevens, who is expected in St. Louis tomorrow. August Post, secretary of the Aero Club of America, will ascend with Hawley.
PRIESTS ARE EXPELLED.
French Gendarmes Take Forceful Possession of Presbyteries Under Separation Law.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
LANDERNEAU (France) Oct. 14.—The priests of the Department of Finistere, having generally refused to quit their presbyteries, which reverted to the communes under the Church and State Separation Law, are now being expelled by the aid of gendarmes.
At many places resistance has been encountered. At Relle the gendarmes were forced to break into the house of the presbyter in order to eject the priests, who were surrounded by weeping women.
At Penner, after a tumultuous scene, the priests took possession of the bell tower of the church to prevent the gendarmes from entering the people.

BRITAIN TO GIRDLE EARTH WITH WIRELESS SYSTEM.

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A wireless expert from London, England, sailed by the steamer Moana from Vancouver yesterday for Fiji, where he will install a system of wireless telegraph stations for the British government.

This is the first move in a plan to establish stations in various parts of the South Pacific, connecting Vancouver with Australian points, from there to Borneo and then to Hongkong and India.
The station at Point Grey, near Vancouver, and now under construction, will be ready in a month. Another will be erected on the west coast of Vancouver Island. When they are ready, Marconi will pay a visit to the Coast and make experiments with a view to transmitting messages both to England and to the other side of the Pacific.

LEAVES ESTATE TO FAMILY.

Nelson Morris's Will Places Elder Son in Almost Absolute Control of Business.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The will of the late Nelson Morris was filed for probate this afternoon.
The petition accompanying the document estimates the value of the estate as being not to exceed $20,000,000. Of this amount more than $18,000,000 consists of personal property and the remainder of real estate.

The bulk of the estate is left in trust to the executors for the various members of his family.
Edward Morris, the elder son, is put in almost absolute control of the business of Morris & Co. and the Fairbanks Canning Company. Elaborate legal provisions are included, safeguarding this part of the will and providing in case of Edward Morris's death.

President Decides to Refer to National Legislature Claims of American Citizens Against Venezuela and Which Have Been Pending for Several Years.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Roosevelt will refer to Congress for action all the claims of American citizens against Venezuela which have been pending for years. Although the American Minister at Caracas and Special Commissioner Calhoun have been very active in securing the collection of these claims, the government has been unable to collect them.

It is believed that the government will be able to collect the claims if Congress acts. The president has decided to refer the claims to the National Legislature. The claims are of various kinds, including claims for damages to property and claims for unpaid taxes.

The president has also decided to refer to Congress the claims of American citizens against Venezuela which have been pending for several years. The claims are of various kinds, including claims for damages to property and claims for unpaid taxes.

J. Brandt Walker Gets Out of the Market With His Winnings.

Began Selling High Grade Securities Before the Slump Began.

J. Brandt Walker, lucky Wall Street bear, who has profited from the recent slump in stocks.

000 to the good, is a mine of cordial optimism.
He has accumulated his great winning since last spring, at the time the market decline became pronounced.
He was one of the few who believed that the high-grade securities would go down generally and he sold them right and left. He kept on selling them.

It appears that Walker has been getting out of the market for some time. He told a reporter today that he had disposed of all his interests except about 15,000 or 20,000 shares he is holding to scalp with.
"Where do you get your information?" was asked.
"Well," replied Mr. Walker, "my father is Edwin Walker, general counsel for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and the Diamond Match Company. Now, I don't say I got it from him, but it shows you who I am."

"I came to New York from Chicago a few years ago and formed a partnership with my brother, E. C. Walker, whose firm, Walker & Co., is a New York Stock Exchange house. I sold out and have since been freelancing it with a few friends."

BEAR HAVE BEEN SEEN.
Tracks Are Numerous and President Is Very Hopeful of Better Hunting Fortune.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)
STAMBOUL (La.) Oct. 14.—No person has reached this point from the President's new camp on Bear Lake today except a party that started from there early this morning, and no messenger is expected until tomorrow. The party arriving today consisted of Secretary Latta and Messrs. Parks, Shields and Mangum, the last named a friend from Mississippi, with whom the President became acquainted at Seneca and who invited him yesterday to the camp.

They brought only the report that the President and his remaining companions had made an early start and that they were in high spirits and very hopeful of better fortune than has yet attended the hunt.
Several members of the party have seen bear at the lake and bear tracks are reported to be numerous.

RAILROAD RECORD. PROSECUTIONS ARE EXPECTED.

Commissioner Lane Now Preparing His Report.

Startling Information Secured on Pacific Coast.

Findings May Go to Department of Justice.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) There is an atmosphere around the offices of the Interstate Commerce Commission which would cause the cold chills to chase up and down the backs of E. H. Harriman and other great railroad officials were they to drop in and witness the activity of Franklin K. Lane, a member of the commission, who has just returned from the Pacific Coast, where he conducted railroad rate investigations. Lane arrived with a mass of documents and evidence and incidentally a strong determination that somebody is to be punished if his findings justify action. He is not doing any talking, as that would be unwise, but he is issuing some sort of statement tomorrow. That he discovered a startling condition of affairs cannot be denied and it is prophesied here that his report, which he is preparing, will be just as startling.

PROSECUTIONS MAY RESULT.
Commissioner Lane is at work on his report almost night and day—in fact, he worked on it all the way across the continent and now has it in hand. He has talked the matter over with some of the members of the commission and it is understood that they will take action upon his report just as soon as possible after it is submitted. If, after his report is thoroughly considered by the commissioners, they think the laws have been violated they will submit the Lane report with a recommendation to the Department of Justice to proceed with prosecutions. There is little doubt that Commissioner Lane will report to the commission that the investigation revealed the facts that certain western roads have been guilty of granting rebates over since the Hepburn law went into effect, and as late as up to September 24 of this year.

DEFENSE OF ROADS.
This will be starting in view of the fact that E. H. Harriman made a public statement that none of the rebates in which he is interested in granting rebates in violation of the law. The contention of the railroad that they may grant rebates on shipments through the State on goods being shipped through is regarded to be a very flimsy defense of a violation of the law. The report of Lane will probably show that certain western roads granted rebates amounting to as high as $17,000 per day since the San Francisco fire. Certain books were destroyed then which prevented the commission from securing complete statistics, but these will not be necessary for him to make his case if he can show that they have continued to grant rebates in violation of the act any time since the Hepburn law went into effect. The report of Commissioner Lane is being looked forward to with as much interest and anxiety as was the report which resulted in the prosecution of the Standard Oil.

FEDERAL CONTROL. MATHER'S IDEA IS INDORSERD.

RAILROAD EXECUTIVES GENERALLY APPROVE EXPRESSION.

Heads of Several Systems Complain Address Made by President of Rock Island, Urging Government Control and Regulating Transportation Lines.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—That railroad executives generally approve of the plan for the government control and regulation of the transportation lines of the nation, as advocated by Robert Mather, president of the Rock Island Company in his speech to the Chicago Association of Commerce, was strongly indicated today when various officials went on record to that effect. Mr. Mather's address was called admirable in every way, and none of the officials interviewed disagreed with him as to the desirability of centralized authority in preference to what they called the varied and inconsistent system of laws passed by State legislatures.

It was granted, too, that Mr. Mather had done well to talk openly of rebating. After complimenting Mr. Mather on his speech, E. F. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe, said he thought the principal points urged by the Rock Island official well taken. "What the railroads are opposed to," he said, "is this varied system of rules, regulations and laws under which, at the present, they must operate. For instance, the Santa Fe runs through fourteen States and Territories, and what is legal in one State may be unlawful in another, and vice versa. In other words, we have too many masters. Would it not be much better for us if we had a single, central source of regulation than many? I believe that is the position taken by Mr. Mather and most railroad officials. The outcry against the railroads has done them much damage," continued Mr. Ripley. "This antagonism is by no means a thing of the past, as it exists today and is deep rooted. The censure and attacks of the press and the unjust strictures from other sources have kept it alive. The result is that the railroads are nearly ruined. They are now worrying along as best they can. The only way to save them is to have the public, even if the public is attacking them."

A great address, a very sensible and convincing speech," said J. C. Harriman, president of the Illinois Central. Taken as a whole, and not analyzing each and every sentence, Mr. Mather's statement in opinion pretty well expresses the feeling of the railroads' presidents and the managers. "The trouble is and has been that the States have various laws which conflict with the interstate laws. This leads to embarrassment and needless correction. It is true that several States have statutes which do not agree. This leads to trouble."

H. C. McDool, president of the Monmouth, approved of Mr. Mather's sentiment. J. W. Patton, president of the Presentation of the case was admirable. "Do you think that nearly all railroad executives agree with Mr. Mather that Federal control is desirable?" "I feel that they do," he replied. "I believe that Mr. Mather's opinions are very largely shared."

"Will the railroads agree upon a Congressional program?" "I have not heard that any such movement is contemplated and I would do nothing of the sort, but will merely continue to try to do business as best they can."

HEARING CREATES INTEREST.
Many Persons Desire to Be Heard on Proposed Uniform Bill of Lading.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Hearing on the adoption of a proposed uniform bill of lading to govern shipments over all railroads in the United States, which will begin before the Interstate Commerce Commission tomorrow has aroused such interest throughout the country that the commission may have to hire a hall to accommodate those who will attend.

One of the leading hotels of Washington notified the commission of a booking of 500 persons who are coming for the hearing, and constant application is being received by the commission, both by telegraph and telephone, for permission to attend and address the body.

A hot fight on many of the provisions of the proposed bill is promised. TO HAVE STEAMERS.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
MONTREAL, Oct. 14.—C. M. Hayes, general manager of the Grand Trunk railway system, in an interview today, stated that it is the intention of the directors to buy fleets of fast steamers on both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans as soon as practical, the same as the Canadian Pacific Railroad.

Two Well-Known Psychical Physicists Express Opinions That Rich Woman Burglar Is Jeckyl-and-Hyde Victim of Moral Insanity, Possessed by Evil Spirit and Irresponsible.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) That Mrs. Charles J. Romadke, confessed burglar and a Jeckyl-and-Hyde character is "possessed of devils" as truly as were the biblical persons whom Jesus restored to moral sanity, is the contention of two Chicago physicians.

One of these is Dr. Axel Gustafson, who attended Mrs. Romadke; the other is Dr. Sheldon Leavitt, a well-known practitioner connected with numerous medical associations and Chicago hospitals. In outlining his startling beliefs, the latter frankly admits that the position he is taking "would be regarded as mere nonsense by the orthodox pathologist."

"But," he continued, "it must be remembered that the orthodox pathologist is wedded to materialism, and has no definite faith in a conscious existence beyond so-called death."

Both physicians do not hesitate to express belief that the woman is under the influence of "disembodied spirits."

"This woman, when herself, was all a woman should be," said Dr. Gustafson. "When another spirit overpowered her personality, she was what the police declare her to be."

Dr. Leavitt, whom Dr. Gustafson consulted, said in his letter of reply: "I have found enough to justify your belief and mine that it is another case of 'obsession,' as it is commonly called." "I am disposed to call it. By the orthodox medical specialist I suppose it would be regarded as a case of dementia."

The mysterious "Ralph Smith," the woman's accomplice, who is now believed to be the disolute son of a New York banker, is still unidentified. It is reported that Reno, the New York detective, has him in custody, and is guarding him at a Federal house, but here, but Reno himself cannot be found.

ANOTHER ARREST MADE IN KENTUCKY MURDER CASE.

Mrs. Jennie Gentry Said to Have Planned With Caleb Powers and an Ex-Convict to Fasten Slaying of Goebel Upon Youtsey, Serving Life Sentence.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)
LEXINGTON (Ky.), Oct. 14.—Mrs. Jennie Gentry of this city has been arrested here on an indictment charging her with conspiracy, with Caleb Powers, now in the Georgetown jail, to fasten the murder of Senator William Goebel on Henry E. Youtsey, who is now in the penitentiary, serving a life sentence for alleged complicity in the killing of Goebel.

Mrs. Gentry was indicted last week jointly with Powers, Harry Benton, an attorney of Newport, and Dave Cushing, an ex-convict from Pulaski county. To the Times' correspondent Mrs. Gentry denied the existence of a conspiracy. She said:

"I carried notes between Caleb Powers and John Rogerson, a convict, who was able to access that he had heard Henry Youtsey say he killed Goebel. James Stevenson, another convict, also heard Youtsey say he fired the shot that killed Goebel."

"There was nothing even approaching a conspiracy to fasten the killing on Youtsey. I am a friend of Mr. Powers, and as such was doing all I could to help him."

Woman in the Case Goes on Stand Before Crowded Courtroom and Gives Incredulous Testimony. Minister Who First Preferred Charges Collapses.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LINCOLN (Neb.), Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Rev. Wilbert P. Ferguson, formerly of Los Angeles, today faced Justice Stevens on a criminal charge of committing adultery. The complaint contains four counts asserting misconduct with Mrs. A. E. Cross.

The day was filled with sensational incidents. Mrs. Cross told her story, a courtroom filled with the morbidly curious drinking in every word.

"The minister told me that love was higher than law," she asserted. "He took me in his arms and told me he loved me. I declared that, to induce our love meant spiritual paralysis for us both. He continued his pleadings and I yielded."

This point of view, she asserted, he lured her to the Lincoln Hotel. During the afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Criswell, who first preferred charges against the defendant, engaged in heated colloquy with Attorney Burr, Ferguson's counsel. At the close of the verbal hostility, Criswell collapsed, and had to be carried from the room. The trial will last for several days.

PANAMA, Oct. 14.—The American engineers are having trouble with the Culebra slide, at the south end of the Culebra cut.

This point of land, always a source of trouble to the French when they tried to dig the canal, is again in motion and will prove a hindrance all during the wet season.

About half a million yards of dirt is in motion. All of this dirt must ultimately be removed, but the engineers would rather get it slowly than have it rushed on them.

Postmaster of Clinton Quotes Fay Graham's Words.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
DECATUR (Ill.) Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) After two days of apparently fruitless testimony, the State opened its case yesterday in the trial of Fred H. Magill, the former Clinton banker, and his wife, Fay Graham Magill, on a charge of killing Magill's first wife.

It was announced that the State would end its case tomorrow morning. Mrs. Nellie Phares, 60 years old, gave the most damaging evidence that the prosecution has yet brought to light regarding the accused couple. Mrs. Phares lived next door to the Magill home in Clinton when Pet Gandy Magill was found dead on the morning of May 11 last.

"Oh, Lord! The people will blame me for Pet's death. I can feel the rope around my neck now," Mrs. Phares testified that Fred said to her at the Magill home the morning of the tragedy. Fred said it was a terrible air and Mrs. Phares. She said he was excited and nervous. After Nellie Pond, his half sister, came, he told her he would have to leave an instant.

Mrs. Phares said Fred told her that he and Pet got up between 11 and 1 o'clock the night before. They went downstairs to get Pet a glass of beer, and after that he slept soundly. Fred said he slept soundly after 11 p.m. Mrs. Phares said she read one of the famous Pet Magill letters, addressed to Fay Graham, telling her to care for Marguerite.

HANDWRITING STRANGE TO HER.
"I told Fred that Pet must have been a wonderful woman to have left such letters," said Mrs. Phares. On cross-examination, Mrs. Phares said she knew Pet's handwriting, having belonged to the same reading circle, and she asserted that she did not recognize the writing, as that of Pet Magill.

Two weeks after Pet's death, Fred said he had found strychnine under a paper in the chiffonier drawer and had burned it. Mrs. Phares told of secret visits to a room in the Magill home by Fred and Fay while the dead wife lay in an upstairs room.

Mrs. Phares related that when Fred told Clinton for Decatur, after the death, and she asked him how long he would be away, he told her, "I don't know. I may be going to hell next."

Of almost equal importance to the prosecution was the testimony of Postmaster Frank C. Davidson of Clinton, an intimate friend of the Magills during Pet's life. On the morning of the death he said he was called to the Magill home by Fay Graham on the phone. He declared Fred said to him on arriving, "Frank, stay with me. They'll think I killed Pet." When Pet Magill's glasses, an element of incrimination, were found in the room, Davidson said he was called to the room by Fred and he said to him, "My God! there's Pet's glasses. I'll go and get Marguerite and I'll go to hell myself."

PREDICTED HER SUICIDE.
Davidson said Fred had told him a few days before Pet's death that he thought Pet would kill herself. He made the same remark before the same month, the witness said. Davidson told how Fred had suggested the names of friends for the Coroner's jury.

C. E. Oakman, an undertaker, testified that he saw Fay Graham going to the Magill home frequently for a year prior to Pet Magill's death.

Mrs. W. C. Campbell said Fay remarked she "understood people were blaming her."

Mrs. Downey testified that Fred told the group of neighbors at the house he was "damn nervous." Mrs. Downey said Fay remarked she was a "bull" and that she should as the two stood together at the dead wife's coffin.

Dr. C. D. Glendinning, a veterinary surgeon, told of being called to Magill's home about May 21 to chloroform a lame horse. There was talk of the effects of chloroform. Fred remarked, "I wish I knew how to use it. I would be enough to end the animal's pain."

C. W. Ross, a cab driver, who drove the Magills to the coroner's office, testified he had heard Fred talking about the "room" still left in the family lot.

P. Bentley, a newspaper man, related a conversation he had with Fred regarding Pet Magill's letters. "Magill told me he was going to see them, so he could tell inquiries they were all right," Bentley testified.

"I said that Pet Magill must have been a woman of wonderful judgment. He asked me why. 'She has protected you and Fay all the way through,' I told him."

JEALOUSY CAUSES TRAGEDY.
Mexican in Arizona Town Instantly Kills Fellow-Countryman and Injures His Wife.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CLIFTON (Ariz.) Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Florin Villa, a Mexican, in a fit of jealousy, shot José Arias in the back and head, killing him instantly, then shot his wife in the left side, seriously injuring her. Villa and his wife separated recently and she was home with Arias, when Villa came in and shot them down without warning. Villa escaped in the mountains, closely followed by deputies, heavily armed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Emma Meak of No. 134 Fulton street is in a critical condition in a critical condition from the effects of a brutal assault committed last night in the Suto forest by an unknown man.

According to her story, she was waiting for a car when a white sedan, driven by a stranger, stopped, and, after telling her the car was not running, offered to drive her to her home. She accepted, and suspected nothing, until the team suddenly turned into Sunny-side avenue, a dark street, running through the forest. She attempted to make an outcry, but the driver placed his hand over her mouth and stopped.

ESTABLISHED OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY. Individual Style

HONEST
In Men's Clothes VALUES

One of our paramount issues is the question of good values. We hold it as important as the quality of the goods we sell; it is considered a strong point and we are more particular than ever to give our customers the very best we can for the money they pay for it, and after all these years of strict observance of that rule we have built up a large and increasing business and hope to continue it in the future. The basis of good clothes is good cloth, the fabric of which the clothes are made. Without it there's no value attached, however ambitious the effort to put style there.

Ours has both the style and fabrics.

business exclusively, in Los Angeles and close vicinity. I have studied the needs and been supplying them long enough to know how to do it to the best advantage. This business today is my pride. It is solid. Quality has been the unconscious force in its building. You feel it; you breathe it and when you are ready to have the prescription repeated, where else would you more naturally turn than to Dean's?

Between You and Me
That Sanitol offer I told you about yesterday has stirred up a great demand—and do you wonder? $2.75 worth of Sanitol products for $1.49. It's a beautiful offer. I consider the "Kleenex" the best of all. It's a solid wood one for $1.49. Just the size women like for face massaging.

I don't substitute. If you want Pond's Extract, you get it, or Gillette razor, or Shalimar's toilet powder, or Huxley's candies. It's friends I am after first.

Olive Skin Soap
I cannot recommend this soap too highly. I have a host of regular customers for it. They tell me it's the finest soap for toilet purposes they ever used—so pure and delightful. 15c cake, 3 for 40c.

Best Rubber Sponges
I've been selling rubber sponges for years. I'm familiar with practically every brand of sponge on the market. Today I consider the "Kleenex" the best of all. It's a solid wood one for $1.49. Just the size women like for face massaging.

For That Cough
Get a bottle of Dean's Cold cure. It will check the Grippe, and put you on your feet. It's a solid wood one for $1.49. Just the size women like for face massaging.

Hand Brushes
I have every imaginable style—bone handles, wood handles, stiff bristles, soft bristles—any kind for any whim. At 25c I have a splendid, pure bristle brush with a solid wood back, an excellent everyday brush.

GOVERNMENT MAY BRING EASTERN WORKMEN TO COAST TO DO REPAIR WORK ON BATTLESHIPS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—In connection with the procurement of the large amount of labor necessary on the Pacific Coast to make the repairs to the battleship fleet when it reaches California, the Navy Department

ment is considering a proposition which will undoubtedly cause a great stir among the labor unions on the Coast.

This is to induce eastern laborers to go there by giving them and their families free transportation, provided they contract to remain in the government service a certain time.

Of course, higher wages must be paid than are common in the East, as a necessary feature of this plan.

QUAIL HUNTERS ON THE MARCH.

Shooting Season Opens Today and Many After Sport.

Automobile Parties Numerous and Get Early Start.

San Fernando Valley Proves Popular Location.

The quail season in California opens today and indications point to a record-breaking crop of quail in the valley. A large number have been out for a few hours, near town or jaunts by train or automobile, but the real test will come when the quail are in the open fields. It appears probable that the quail season today will be numbered by four figures in this county alone.

As usual the San Fernando Valley is to be the great hunting point of a matter. The army of trigger knuckles will invade it soon after daybreak, the early train being converted practically into a "hunting special." Those who attempt to bag the limit in this point had better "stop, look and listen" before pulling the trigger, to make sure nothing else than a quail is within range.

If one bird is brought in for every two of shells shot yesterday, the slaughter will establish a new record for "opening day" in Southern California. Many are going to remote points, but the majority are going to the San Fernando Valley, particularly to the San Fernando Valley, where the quail are in the open fields. The outlook in the San Fernando Valley will change materially after today's cannoning, although another brigade will be ahead again Sunday.

Waiting for Sunday. The majority are reserving their sport until Sunday, but the days intervening will make the birds wild by that time, and a limit will have been earned by the end of the week.

Among those going Saturday are Gen. C. C. Jacob, Adlai Stevenson, Fred Holbrook, Chris Krenkel, and possibly others, who will open the season on the quail. The party is composed of automobiles, and, as the road is good, as local roads go, they combine motor and shooting. There is a hot spring at Glen Ivy, a small trout stream, and quite a number of other attractions. The quail are reported plentiful, and the sport outlook good.

Joe Singer will open the season on the limit, either today or tomorrow. Birds are plentiful there; in days gone by, Charles McCoy and his friends used to bag them by the hundred.

B. H. Dyas, and several others will have Sunday for Coschella to join Frank Strong, Dr. Thompson and William Wagner left yesterday for the Coschella valley to shoot up the quail near Thermal, where they are reported as plentiful.

A. Fox has joined the valley squad and will be near Patolima today. J. J. Jenkins and a large party of Glen Ivy Club members have gone to the valley, formerly kept by the late Joe Mitchell. The party is composed of automobiles, and, as the road is good, as local roads go, they combine motor and shooting. There is a hot spring at Glen Ivy, a small trout stream, and quite a number of other attractions. The quail are reported plentiful, and the sport outlook good.

Robert Brain will lead a good-sized party into the Little Tejon today after quail and rabbits. Eddie Schmidt is an exception to the rule. He will shoot curlew on the Santa Monica Gun Club today. The quail are reported plentiful, and the sport outlook good.

Jim Jeffries and his party will get their quail shooting near Merced today. The quail are reported plentiful, and the sport outlook good.

GYM CLUB PROGRAMME. Trip Through Arizona and Southern California Planned for High School Boys.

The Los Angeles and Polytechnic High School's Gym Club will soon begin on a series of try-outs to select eleven members of the club to go on a trip through Arizona and Southern California. The best athletes of the two schools will enter these try-outs, and five will be chosen from the High School and six from Polytechnic.

Physical Director Lowrey decided to let the team take this trip after returning from the Interurban League at the meeting last night. Robert Simonds, of the B. T. & T. nine, was alleged to be a semi-professional, and played against the rules of the league.

RIVAL WINTER LEAGUE. Scotty Allen Lays Plans for Strong Organization and Expects Others to Join.

"Scotty" Allen is completing plans for his rival winter league, and expects to be ready to start operations in November. Austin Lebrant, who manages the Dyas-Clines, and Buck Franchi, the second Los Angeles team, which may be called the Vernons, Allen will retire from active management of the former nine.

From San Diego the Pickwicks and Balacons are to join the league, making a four-team organization. Sam Bernardino and Anaheim also may be added to the league. The league probably will be played in San Diego November 1, and in Los Angeles November 7. It will be made up of professional ball players, with a few good amateurs in the ranks.

Rain Helps Hunters. The rain of last night put the ground in excellent shape for the quail hunting today. Not only did the rain lay down a soft, spongy surface, but it also dried the grass, so that it is possible for excellent sport with dogs. The quail also will not be easily flushed and will afford better straightaway shooting and will not fly so far.

Breaks World's Record. OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 14.—Stum Beauty, a gray filly owned and driven by Frank R. Vannum, broke the world's record on a half-mile track for two-year-olds this afternoon, making the mile in 1:19.4. The previous record, set by Beauty's dam, was 1:20.4. Beauty was owned by Frank R. Vannum, who is a well-known horse breeder and trainer. She was trained by J. W. Moore, who is also a well-known horse breeder and trainer. Beauty was born in 1933 and is now three years old. She is a very fast and smart filly, and she has won many races. She is expected to be a very successful racehorse.

MOUNTAINEERS HERE.

DENVER TEAM IN PRACTICE.

Visiting Squad Appears Weak Because of Injuries.

Week's Workout May Change Complexions of Things. Three Hours of Hard Training Is Daily Routine.

Denver University's football squad practiced on the Fiesta Park field, yesterday afternoon, but as the uniforms had not yet arrived nothing more than signal practice and passing the ball was attempted. The players were worn out with the long journey of two nights and a day, from Salt Lake City, and nearly every member of the squad is suffering from a bruise or sprain of some kind, received in the two games played.

The sixteen players and Coach Koehler attended a theatrical performance last night. Every forenoon this week the Denver team will practice at Fiesta Park from 9 o'clock until 12, and in the evenings signals will be run through in the room at the Hollenbeck.

Coach Koehler says that his men are too badly battered up to do any scrimmage work this week, but he expects to have his players in shape for a scrappy game against St. Vincent's Saturday. One of his best men, Hardine, halfback, is at the California hospital suffering from an abrasion in the ear, and probably will not be able to play in the coming game.

The quarterback, Andrews, has a badly sprained leg, and unless the injury heals very rapidly, Bartell will do the directing of the play in the game with Denver's eleven.

Denver University has played two games this season and lost both. The eleven was beaten, 29 to 4, by the University of Colorado, at Boulder, October 5; and 14 to 0, by the University of Utah, at Salt Lake City, October 12. Koehler's men were battered up in both these games, but a week of rest is expected to put them in shape again.

Coach Koehler played tackle on the University of Chicago team in 1902, after three years on the University of Nebraska eleven. In 1903 he was assistant coach at Chicago. He says he has a difficult task on hand at Denver, as material is very scarce at the university. The team which will play St. Vincent's is picked from a small group of players who are now playing in the Interurban League.

Players Outlawed. NATIONAL COMMISSION ACTS. (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.) CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—The California State League today was declared to be an outlaw organization by the National Baseball Commission. By this ruling players who are now playing in the league are in violation of contracts with the national agreement clubs, and are "forever ineligible to participate in any games played by the national agreement clubs."

Quakers Weakened. FOOTBALL STARS INJURED. (SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.) WHITTIER, Oct. 14.—With the Occidental game less than a week away, the Quakers find themselves in a very crippled condition. Miller's place, right half, was never satisfactorily filled until a few days ago, when W. Reneker was moved from right tackle to the position. He has been showing up remarkably well, but leaves the end considerably weakened. Reed has been practicing in the position, and while he is very light-weight, he is showing up very well, but leaves the end considerably weakened.

Stahl Sold to Yankees. NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Jack Stahl will be a member of the New York American League team next year, according to an announcement made today, as the result of a three-cornered trade. Frank LaPorte goes to the Boston Americans, while the Chicago Americans get Fred Parent. Stahl is an old collegian, and formerly managed the Washington team.

BOURNE RETURNS.

BAPTISTS IN SECRET WORK.

Walter Bourne, who played fullback on last year's team, returned to St. Vincent's College yesterday. He will be too light for a back-field position, but will probably try for an end.

Whereas, as newcomer, who hails from the Middle West, registered and will be out in football soon today. He has played against some of the large schools in that district, and should make good.

Coach Hempel had his men playing closed games. He does not intend to stop hard practice until Thursday. There will be no admittance to the practice field with Los Angeles High at Fiesta Tuesday afternoon.

NORTHERN TRIP. CASTAWAYS ARE ENCOURAGED. Gary Knapp, manager of the Stanford football team, is doing his best to arrange dates for a Castaway trip in the North. Present indications are that the local team will go North early in November, and that the Castaways will be able to come back with some victories to their credit.

Knapp takes occasion to say that the Stanford players thoroughly enjoyed their southern trip, and that he has heard many expressions of appreciation of the manner in which they were received.

Indian Comes in First. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—W. J. DEMURRER IS SUSTAINED.

Court Decision is Unfavorable to Pullman Company Seeking to Evade Tax Payments.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Circuit Judge Van Fleet handed down a decision today, sustaining the demurrer of the defendants in the case of the Pullman Company against Controller A. R. Nye and the county clerk of the various counties in this State, traversed by the railroads over which Pullman cars are operated.

The Pullman company sought to evade paying taxes within the State, claiming that the Board of Equalization was exorbitant in assessing it over $2,000,000 this year, whereas in the past the assessment amounted to only $600,000. The Pullman company also claimed that if it was compelled to pay taxes at that rate, it would be damaged beyond repair by a multiplicity of actions.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) DENVER (Colo.) Oct. 14.—Two conferences were held today between the representatives of the Order of Railway Telegraphers and Vice-President Schallacks of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad on the question of reinstatement of Operator Skegg, who was discharged from the service of the railroad at Grand Junction, Colo., for refusing to test Western Union wires.

DECISION DEFERRED.

Judge Thompson Wants More Time in Which to Consider Injunction Against Pressmen.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—A.M.) CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—Explaining that he wished more time in which to examine the authorities on the question of jurisdiction, United States Judge Thompson today deferred the announcement of his decision whether to make permanent the temporary injunction against the International Pressmen's Union.

Lady Henry Somerset.

It has been said that Lady Henry Somerset owes her skill as a speaker to the training received at the hands of an actress. As a matter of fact, she is a perfectly natural orator, speaking readily what has been put into her heart to utter. Lady Henry is a great admirer of Abraham Lincoln, and always reads to her English girls his mastery address at Gettysburg, for the training of its diction as well as the patriotism embodied, says Woman's Life.

Many friends have this versatile woman in the fire, and rarely has she an idle moment. A colony for the cure of inebriate women has been established at Duxbury, near the Priory where the patients have pretty little rose-covered cottages, and where she goes about them in nurse attire. Then, too, she has published magazines and an immense amount of literature of a helpful sort, scattering it broadcast.

BREAKING OF STORM TAKES THREE LIVES.

Lightning and Thunder Leave Death in Their Wake—Bolt Kills Near Hemet and Elemental Violence Causes Drowning.

PUNCTUATED here and there with great flashes of lightning, death-dealing in its effects, and with great, deafening thunder that seemed to rock the earth, the storm broke over Southern California yesterday afternoon and last evening. At least three lives were lost by the destructive play of the elements and there was some destruction of property.

A fatal bolt brought instant death to two redmen working on a ranch near Hemet. In a terrific electrical storm in Little Bear Valley in the San Bernardino mountains, one of the engineers employed on the great reservoir and tunnel project for the irrigation of western San Bernardino county, was overturned in a boat and drowned.

At Upland a large, partly-built structure collapsed. Several men narrowly missed death and one was injured. Reports received by The Times up to 1 o'clock this morning indicate that the rain is general over Southern California. The precipitation appears to have begun early in the evening up country and to have started two or three hours later along the seashore.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Engineer L. Z. Remon of the Arrowhead Reservoir and Power Company lost his life in Little Bear Valley, Lake shortly after the noon hour today. His boat was upset in the course of a terrific electrical disturbance.

Remon had started across the lake to inspect the machinery at the reservoir when a storm which had been threatening broke, the thick darkness overclouding the water.

Then the place was illuminated by flash after flash of chain lightning and as the thunder shook the hills the lake seemed to be lifted on end by an awful wind which threw Remon's boat completely over.

He sank like a rock, carried down by a heavy weight of metal harness used in supporting his back, he being a hunchback, and so far his body has not been recovered. Remon has for three years been employed by the company and was widely known throughout this section.

WETNESS GENERAL.
TIDINGS OF RAIN.
A report from Monrovia last night said that there was a heavy fall of rain there and that in the mountains the precipitation was greater yet.

In Pasadena there was a drizzle in the morning, but later it was raining so heavily that an observer estimated the probable fall by morning at an inch. The precipitation was so gentle as to do no damage.

A report from Santa Monica last night said that there was a gentle rain there. In Santa Ana the first shower of the season came this evening. The rain was light. It will not do much damage there. The bean crop is all in the warehouse.

TEMPESTUOUS
BUILDING RAZED
IN UPLAND
SUDDEN GUST BLOWS DOWN A PACKING-HOUSE ANNEX.

Several Workmen Caught Under Falling Timbers, but Only One Is Injured—Structure to Be Rebuilt as Soon as Wreckage Can Be Cleared Away—Noise Heard for Blocks.

UPLAND, Oct. 14.—In a heavy burst of wind here, this afternoon, the large framework for the addition to the Upland Citrus Association's packing-house, in course of construction, was blown down without an instant's warning. The dimensions of the addition are 60x200 feet, and the framework for the entire roof and most of the side timbers were in place.

About a dozen men were working on and about the structure at the time, and of all this number, only one man was hurt, and he not seriously. William Frowdfeiter had been badly sprained by one of the heavy timbers falling upon him. Others of the men escaped by a narrow margin, being caught under the mass of broken and twisted timbers, while two who were at work on the roof saved themselves by catching hold of some of the overhead supports of the main structure, which was not affected by the puff of wind.

Contractor Burkholder will at once proceed to clear away the wreckage and repair the damage, which will be heavy. The roar of the collapse of the structure could be heard for blocks.

FATAL FLUID.
LIGHTNING BOLT
DEATH TO TWO
INDIANS PERISH IN STORM NEAR HEMET.

Redmen Take Refuge in Clump of Trees, Where Descending Ball of Fire Quickly Ends Their Lives. Thunderstorm General Throughout Riverside County.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
RIVERSIDE, Oct. 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two Indians, Juan Silva and Juan Verrando, who were working in a peanut field on the Miller ranch, near Hemet, were struck by lightning this afternoon and instantly killed. The fatal bolt accompanied a heavy thunderstorm, which came up shortly after noon.

When the storm broke the Indians sought shelter under a clump of cedar trees, and soon afterward a blinding ball of fire struck the trees. Both men were frightened and started, and their shoes were driven from their feet by the force of the bolt.

A son of Silva, who was with the two men, was stunned for a moment by the bolt, but escaped injury. Over an inch of rain fell at Hemet during the storm.

The thunderstorm was general throughout Riverside county, and considerable trouble was experienced with electric light and telephone wires. This evening lightning struck a telephone pole on Fenwick street, in Riverside, near the Salt Lake track, splitting the pole to the ground.

FOR CELESTIAL SPIRITS. Chinese Spread Feast and Hold Weird Rites Over Tong War Victims Soon to Be Buried.

The spirits of the two Chinese who were killed in the tong war Friday night, were given a feast last night before the burial of the bodies. A table was loaded with fruit and placed in the middle of the tong houses on Apollonia street, where they were invited to come. Food and incense was burned, and weird string music was played to drive away the devils.

Around the table the Celestials knelt and chattered the funeral rites of their masonry. The rain soon drove them to cover and the feast died out. About twenty-five participated.

The bodies of Kung Kung, who was a member of the Chee Kung tong, and Lum Soon, who belonged to the Bing Kung tong, are still at Pierce Bros' morgue. Today they will be taken before the loss and remain there twenty-four hours before interment.

FLAMES DAMAGE JEWELRY STORE.

BOSTON OPTICAL COMPANY ALSO SUFFERS LOSS.
Panic in the Orpheum Is Averted by the Presence of Mind of an Actress and Manager Drown—Damage Estimated at About Twenty Thousand Dollars.

Hundreds of lives were imperiled and nearly $20,000 worth of property destroyed or damaged by a fire, which started in the rear of the F. M. Reiche jewelry store, No. 335 South Spring street, last night at 9:30 o'clock.

A panic was averted in the Orpheum, where the fire started, by the presence of mind of an actress and manager Drown.

Hon. George Horton, Consul-General to Greece.

Two doors above, through the resourcefulness of Miss Seligman, an actress and manager Drown, Miss Seligman was in her sketch when the engine came pounding over the streets. Hurriedly she left the stage. A moment later she returned, her face covered with soot, and her costume bespattered.

"Oh, the gasoline stove exploded. It will break up housekeeping for good," she exclaimed.

A ripple of laughter ran through the audience as she left the stage. The curtain dropped, and Drown stepped out.

"There is a fire, all right, just two doors below the theater," he said, calmly. "Chief of Police Korn advises me that it would be best to dismiss the audience for the evening. All the doors will be thrown open for your accommodation."

When the doors were thrown open the clang of the bells was heard. In the rear of the house several shouted "Fire." It caused little commotion, however, the crowd passing out in good order.

GALLERY RUSH.
But in the gallery there was a rush for the stairs. It was emptied in no time. Nobody was injured.

A Japanese fair and theater was in progress in the Elks' Hall, which adjoins the theater. In a panic they rushed out of the building, blocking the halls. Several Japanese women were carried out in a faint. Inside the hall the chairs were overturned and the valuable decorations torn from the walls when the smoke penetrated the room.

The Japanese were jammed into the hallway so that the members of the Elks' Club were unable to leave their seats. Many rushed to the rear of the building and climbed down the fire escapes.

From the manner in which the flames spread it is believed defective wiring on an electric motor in the jeweler's workshop caused the conflagration. Had the firemen allowed the flames to get through the ceiling of the store and get a hold in Elks' Hall, they would have swept the second floor, cutting off the exit of the Orpheum gallery, and might have made their way through that gallery.

The building is a three-story brick structure. The basement, No. 335 1/2 South Spring, is occupied by a beer cafe. The store above is occupied by the Boston Optical Company and the jewelry store. The Charles Ennis Clothing Company occupies the store at No. 332 1/2.

The entrance to the Orpheum gallery and the Elks' Hall is at No. 332 1/2. The main entrance to the store is at No. 332 1/2. The south side, second floor, is the Elks' Hall.

DAMAGE ESTIMATES.
Much water leaked through the floor and the café owners estimated their loss at a little more than $500. Smoke made its way through the

FOOTPADS GET THEIRS.

Attempted Hold-Up Near Monrovia Results in Disaster to Would-Be Highwaymen.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
MONROVIA, Oct. 14.—It is reported that several hold-ups have occurred recently on the road between this place and Pasadena, but the experience of three hold-up men early this morning may put a stop to them for a time.

As Walter Holcomb, a chauffeur employed by the Fashion Livery stables, was returning from Pasadena about 2 o'clock this morning, three men jumped out from the shadow of the pepper tree at White Oak and Mayflower avenues, on the western outskirts of Monrovia, and commanded him to stop and throw up his hands. Holcomb, who had been running slowly, instantly threw on the power and struck and knocked down the man in front. Another of the trio caught hold of the tonneau and tried to climb into the machine, but finally was hurled to the ground with such force that Holcomb thinks he as well as the man who was knocked down, must have been seriously injured.

He held of a talk he had with the public executioner. As the family of every executed criminal immediately proceeds to sew out a vendetta against that unhappy individual, the latter is planted by the government out in an island of the sea in a heavy cage. Horton found him to be a mild old man, with a tortoise shell cat. He asked the old fellow how he managed to screw up his nerves to use the guillotine.

"I take about a pint of booze," said the old man, simply.

One of the curious customs of which Gen. Horton showed pictures was that of carrying the coffin open through the streets at funerals. The custom has a historic origin. So many Greek revolutionists used to escape from the Turks by pretending to be dead that the Turks made it law that the coffin must be left open.

Gen. Horton says they almost make butter of sheep's milk. On one occasion the butter wasn't to be had and the dealers told him with many apologies that the animals had all gone into the mountains, so there was no butter, as nothing but cows remained.

Village Greeks, like the Greeks in the cities, have a perfect mania for politics. In one village, the two parties were divided year after year on the question of allowing pigs to feed in the street. They were called the "pigs" and "no-pigs."

The alleged delights of smoking a Turkish cigarette were described. The speaker said the Greeks declared the smoke is good for consumption, but he declares it takes lung power to smoke one. You have to brace yourself and suck at a terrible strain to extract a tiny thin thread of smoke. The writer starts in with a piece of charcoal and tremendous puffing and drawing in of his breath; when he gets it going a little he rushes over in great excitement and transfers the mouthpiece from his lips to yours. The youth of the land are abandoning it for the less strenuous cigarette.

COIN.
BORROW HUGE
SUM IN GOLD.
HAMBURGERS GIVE TRUST DEED FOR STORE PROPERTY.

Eight Hundred Thousand Dollars in Cash Secured from Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York Upon Ten-Year Note—Make Another Loan.

A deed of trust was filed in the office of County Recorder Logan yesterday which makes over to the Title Insurance and Trust Company all of the realty holdings of the Hamburger Realty and Trust Company between Broadway and Hill and Eighth and Ninth streets, upon which the new Hamburger stores stand, as security for a loan of $800,000 in gold coin.

The third party in the transaction is the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of New York, which lends the cash with the Title Insurance and Trust Company as the holding company. The note for this sum is signed by D. A. Hamburger, as president, and M. A. Hamburger, as acting secretary of the Hamburger Realty and Trust Company. The note runs for ten years.

The rate of interest named for this huge sum is 10 per cent, but with a proviso that there will be a rebate of 4 per cent upon the payment of the taxes and liens by the borrowers. The trust deed also provides for a further rebate of 1/2 per cent after the completion of the big store and all buildings contemplated.

The trust deed involves two parcels of land in the block, and lot 30 of the Huber tract in block 52, but provides that, if, after the completion of the building on parcel No. 1, it is found that all liens, taxes and incumbrances of any sort are cleared away by the borrowers, then parcel No. 2 will be added back to the Hamburger Realty and Trust Company.

Another provision made is that the Hamburger company may borrow an additional sum, "not exceeding $200,000," from the party of the third part upon the security of the property named.

This sum of $800,000, and possibly $1,000,000, will be used for the purpose of completing the great building now going up on the property named. The first negotiations for a loan were for about $600,000, but plans and specifications showed that probably more would be needed and a new trust deed was made out for the loan which was consummated yesterday.

Real estate men in Los Angeles look upon this loan as establishing the great value of Los Angeles business property as an investment and asset that in very few cities of this country could such a sum be borrowed at this time especially when money is so tight, as was placed on record yesterday.

FOLK LORE OF GREEKS.
The main part of Gen. Horton's lecture last night, however, was devoted to the folk lore of the Greeks in the little island village where the Paris fashions—the "great monotonizers"—have not yet penetrated.

He told the jokes they tell at the Greek cafe, and repeated the lullaby that Greek mothers sing to their babies.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Contracts were awarded by the Board of Public Works yesterday for supplying machinery for the new cement plant on the Los Angeles Aqueduct.

The Council is considering a new plan for harmonizing street names and numbers in the Fifth and Sixth wards. The changes proposed will affect the houses or street numbers of 40,000 citizens.

Politics has entered into the naming of a charter-revision committee, and a deadlock is the result; the old committee has adjourned sine die, and the Council cannot agree on the selection of a new.

The Mayor left last night for Goldfield, and during the next ten days Councilman Pease of the Fourth Ward, Non-Partisan, will be acting Mayor.

In Prof. T. S. C. Lowe's fight against the board of directors of the People's Gas Company in "Firing" him as president, Judge Monroe in the Superior Court, ruled that the original bylaws were in effect, indicating that Lowe was deposed by legal right.

Charges of subornation of perjury against Attorney W. J. Danford were dismissed yesterday in the Township Justice Court.

Miss Mattie Butts, arrested on a charge of creating a disturbance in a lodging-house, was released by the Police Court, but was given a day to prove her claim that she was drugged by an unidentified man.

AT THE CITY HALL.

STREET NAMES MIXED UP.

COUNCIL TO RENUMBER SOUTH END THOROUGHFARES.

Proposed Ordinances Harmonizing Names and Numbers in Fifth and Sixth Wards Would Change the Addresses of Forty Thousand Persons—Committee Named.

The Council appointed a special committee yesterday to make recommendations for harmonizing street names and numbers from Jefferson street, south to the city limits. The new schedule will change the names or numbers of more than 100 thoroughfares. It will change the house numbers of 40,000 people.

Five times efforts have been made by former Councils to rename and number the streets of the Fifth and Sixth wards; each time an ordinance was prepared so many persons protested that the Council would decline to act.

Yesterday committees from the Vernon and University Improvement associations met with the Council and discussed the proposed plan for new names. A postoffice official representing Postmaster Flint also took a part. The plan favored yesterday is that the first street south of Jefferson off Main street shall be numbered Thirty-fifth street; and that each succeeding street shall be numbered in numerical relation to the southern city boundary.

Yerkes avenue, Mission avenue, Manchester street and Florence street may retain their present names but all other names must be replaced by numbers.

Street names are fixed by ordinance and to rename and number these streets will require amendments to about 125 existing ordinances. Councilman Wallace proposed that the names be harmonized by adopting the number plan and the committees from the improvement associations gave a ready consent.

In the past efforts have been made to adopt a general numerical plan for the south-end streets. But the settlement of the southern part of the city was so irregular that when Fortieth street came through from Vernon to Main it encountered Fifth street on the west side of Main street. Naturally this had led to confusion. In some sections Fortieth street is five blocks north of Thirty-fifth street.

Objection to changing the names of the streets came from the property owners there. When a citizen has lived for twenty years on Thirty-seventh street he does not take it kindly to wake up some morning and find that he is living on Athena avenue.

Councilman Wallace and Tonkin have been named as the committee to present a plan for the new street names and numbers. There are a great many short streets that cut in for a few blocks between regular east and west streets; these will receive appropriate names or the present number will be retained but it will be Thirty-seventh "place" and Thirty-seventh street will be somewhere else.

Changing the numbers of the streets will also affect the house numbers on the north-and-south streets. The Assessor and the postmaster are the ones who will suffer the most annoyance; the new plan will affect at least 40,000 addresses.

COUNCIL DISAGREEMENT.

CHARTER REVISION DEADLOCK.

Changing that certain semi-civic organizations are seeking to force on the city a charter which will represent only a small part of the taxpayers, administration Councilmen declined yesterday to proceed further with the naming of a charter revision committee.

These ask that the old committee be discharged, and that a new start be made along different lines. The discussion was occasioned by a call from the foot of the Council for the recommendation of the Charter Revision Committee on the appointment of new commissioners. Councilman Pease said that the committee reported to the Mayor more than a week ago and that the report has either been mislaid or suppressed.

The recommendation of the committee to that a new committee be appointed to be composed entirely of freeholders, that the committee shall not consist of more than fifteen members, and that these commissioners shall be selected as follows:

Chamber of Commerce, three commissioners; Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, three commissioners; Municipal League, three commissioners; Voters' League, two commissioners; Trades and Labor Council, two commissioners; Los Angeles Bar Association, one commissioner; Clearing-house Association, one commissioner.

This representation is not satisfactory to either Republicans or Democrats. The Republicans say that the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association may be permitted to name two commissioners each, but that one member should be the limit for the other organizations.

FIVE MILLION FOR BIG CEMENT PLANT.

AQUEDUCT GAINS.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made yesterday of the formation of a $5,000,000 corporation headed by C. A. Canfield, of Los Angeles, to manufacture cement at Tehachapi, under the corporate name of the Tehachapi Portland Cement Company. The organization is to be a combine of the proposed cement plants at Oro Grande and Victorville and it is expected that the city of Los Angeles will give its contracts for machinery and equipment to the new concern. In return for this concession, the company promises to supply the city with all the cement it needs to construct the Los Angeles aqueduct at a probable price of $1.95 a barrel.

Investigation into quality of cement deposits, the cost of manufacture and other details have been secretly conducted by Canfield and his associates for nearly a year.

B. B. Lathbury, who is said to be one of the most prominent cement executives in the country, has made tests and has furnished reports showing the possibilities of the plan conceived by Canfield.

Not only will the new concern supply cement in the local market at a figure sent to the people that would be voted down three to one.

When an attempt was made to vote on the recommendation of the first Charter Revision Committee it developed that the Council is divided into three parties, and that not one of the three can come even close to casting five votes. Finally action was delayed for one week.

STILL HANGING ON.

HEALTH FORCES INACT.

Councilman Healy, controller of the health department situation yesterday, his single vote was enough to block the final adoption of the ordinance abolishing seven inspectorships. It was Healy's time to gloat, and he made the most of his opportunity.

When Mayor Harper's message vetoing the ordinance was read there was a counting of noses in the Council. Seven votes are required to pass the ordinance over the executive veto, and two of the nine Councilmen were absent.

"You might as well understand that I am against this ordinance," announced Healy boldly. "I am going to vote as I talk, and I should like to see you put it in practice."

This left but six votes, even though Lyon should be in favor of the ordinance, he was absent. Healy tried to make the most of his advantage by insisting that a final vote should be taken at once. But the other legislators avoid this by insisting that action be delayed for one week. This motion prevailed and the question of abolishing the six inspectorships is still open to discussion.

FOR CEMENT PLANT.

Contracts were awarded by the Board of Public Works yesterday for supplying and installing machinery for the city's plant that is to furnish cement for the Los Angeles aqueduct.

Thomas Prosser & Son received the contract for furnishing eight tube mills as a part of the cement-making machinery. At the afternoon session of the Council the board secured permission to order a ninth tube mill from this firm. The city has already ordered a line land along the route of the aqueduct, and the board is rushing the details of a plant so that it may be ready to turn out cement before spring.

PEASE MAYOR.

TEN DAYS' REIGN. During the next ten days Councilman Pease of the Fourth Ward will be acting Chief Executive. Mayor Harper left yesterday for a trip to Goldfield as a guest of Thomas Canfield, president of the Salt Lake Railroad. The Mayor travels with a party of friends in Culbert's private car.

Before leaving the City Hall the Mayor said that he may return by next Tuesday. There will be no meeting of the Police or Fire Board this week.

Elevated Sidewalks.

The Council deferred action yesterday on a proposed ordinance requiring the maintenance of elevated sidewalks in the wholesale district. This ordinance is deemed by the Council that they may lead from their warehouses direct into cars. It provides for the erection of a sidewalk permanently to the height of the curb and the number of property owners in the wholesale district have objected; they make the contention that the sidewalk is for the use of the public and not of a private company.

To Discuss Awnings. A special order of business set for next Monday is the consideration of a petition for an amendment to the building ordinance permitting the construction and maintenance of permanent metal awnings over the sidewalks in the wholesale district. A. A. Drongold said that the Fire Underwriters and the Fire Board will protest, as the awnings would hamper the work of the fire department.

More Salary Boosts.

City Attorney Hewitt presented to the Council yesterday two ordinances increasing the pay of city employees. One ordinance provides for the increase of the pay of drivers and their teams for the chain gang from $4 to $4.25 a day; the other raises the wages of sixty drivers and their teams in the street department from $4 to $4.25 a day, and six drivers with teams for street sweeping from $4 to $4.25 a day. Both ordinances were referred to the Committee of the Whole.

State Gets Water Bonds.

A resolution was adopted by the Council yesterday, formally offering to sell to the State Board of Examiners for the State bonds in the sum of $10,000 of the first issue of Owens River water bonds. Several weeks ago the secretary of the State board notified the Board of Public Works that the examiners would take half the first issue. Yesterday's resolution is part of the red tape necessary to complete the sale.

Bridge for Boyle Heights.

The Council authorized the Board of Public Works by resolution yesterday to advertise for bids for the construction of a cement arch bridge over the Arroyo de los Pinos. The street railway companies will bear a portion of the cost of construction and the bridge will be used jointly by the city and by the railways.

First Old Lot Sale.

From the steps of the City Hall today the City Clerk will sell at auction sixty-five pieces of city property that have reverted to the municipality through the failure of the record owners to pay city taxes. It is the first auction of its kind to be held here since the adoption of the present city charter.

DENY GIRL IS ACCOMPLICE.

Both the men under arrest denied yesterday that Gertrude Dobbs was in any way connected with their operations.

The police, however, having been unable to find any trace of her, and knowing her intimate connection with the gang on former occasions, the keeping a watch for her. Telegrams were sent to every Coast city yesterday in an effort to secure the men's records.

Seattle, Portland, San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, and San Diego, as well as Los Angeles, and the beach towns, all received visits from the unwelcome members of the gang.

All the credit is given Chief Ramsey of Ocean Park, whose officers arrested the men and secured from one of them a statement of their former operations which will materially aid the local police in collecting their evidence.

SALE ON EAST SEVENTH.

Hundred Thousand Dollars is Paid for San Pedro Street Corner, Sellers Making a Good Profit.

The southeast corner of East Seventh and San Pedro streets, 100x112 feet, has been sold to a local investor by a syndicate composed of Charles McKenna and the Ramsey Brothers.

The sale was made solely through the agency of W. B. Merwin & Co. The price was $100,000. This is one of the largest transactions of realty in the East Seventh-street section for several months. The property is practically unimproved, but the new owner is planning to build a modern two-story brick building.

The syndicate purchased the property about a year ago for $75,000. Both from a speculative and investment standpoint, the lot has improved greatly in value during this time, as the Seventh-street car line is practically completed and will make this lot one of the great transfer points on East Seventh street.

The store building at No. 523 South Spring street, 24x36 feet, with an extension 15 feet square on the rear, was leased last week through the agency of W. B. Merwin & Co., to Peck Judah and the Balloon Route Excursion Company for a four-year term, at $600 a month. The total rental for the term of the lease aggregates $24,000. Part of the store-room has been subleased to Nares & Saunders.

Jones & Ryder Land Co. has sold for B. K. Rand the handsome two-story frame residence, lot 52x150 feet at No. 1048 Westlake avenue, to Paren Rice for $10,000. It was bought by Mr. Rice for a home.

Clark & Nichols have sold to Francis D. Ellis, through the agency of Althouse Bros., the two-story, nine-room residence, at No. 2542 Kenwood avenue, lot 50x125 feet, for a consideration of $7500. The house has just been completed. The lot is 50x125 feet. It was purchased for a home.

RESPIRE FOR SANTA FE.

Court Continues Time for Imposing Fines for Rebating Three Weeks. Other Cases Go Over.

Judge Welborn of the United States District Court yesterday continued the time for giving sentence in the Santa Fe rebate case three weeks. Counsel for the railway company intimated that the case will be appealed, regardless of the amount of fine that may be imposed. The maximum fine could be $125,000; the minimum, $25,000.

The United States District Attorney stated that the other cases pending against the Santa Fe and the Grand Canyon Lime and Cement Company for alleged rebating will not be tried until the January term. The calendar this term is filled, and the rebate cases are expected to take several weeks for trial.

Silver in London yesterday experienced a sharp fall of a penny, to 27 1/2, making a fall of 2 1/2 since September 26. This steady decline was chiefly due to the rain not coming as freely as expected. The Indian government, which had been the main support of the market, has stopped buying. In the afternoon a little support was forthcoming at the lower level, and the market became steadier.

Better Than Most $50 Suits. Price $35

"Cannot furnish any more suits like those except at an advance of $10.00 a suit." That was the manufacturer's reply to our order for more of these $45.00 suits. Said it was impossible to make them for the original price—argued that the price was too low in the first place. So since we cannot continue the suits without increasing the cost, we decided to drop $10.00 and bid them good bye. They are among the very choicest of our new fall suits—handsome three button cutaway, three-quarter length and Prince Chap styles in extremely beautiful novelty serges, broadcloths, etc. We do not hesitate to say that they are better than most $50.00 suits. Interesting literary programme was presented.

Delightful Luncheon.

Mrs. Ada L. Ward entertained with a delightful luncheon Saturday afternoon at her home on Cambridge street, in honor of Mrs. George W. Jordan. The table was artistically decorated with pink carnations and Cecil Brunner roses. Mrs. Alice Anderson acted as toastmistress and a number of clever toasts were given. Covers were laid for Mrs. Alice T. Anderson, Mrs. Robert Howell, Mrs. Charles Stanbury, Mrs. A. J. Hietso, Mrs. A. Eckstrom, Mrs. Sarah Smith, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. W. E. Bird, Mrs. H. T. Stanley, and Mrs. Ward. Guesting games were played and the first prize went to Mrs. A. J. Hietso.

Invitations Issued.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cook have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Rose, to Dr. Loren J. Hollingsworth, Tuesday evening, October 29, at the Westlake Methodist Church. Both young people are extremely popular and the ceremony will be witnessed by a large number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Horsfall of New York City are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Adams of No. 229 Central avenue.

Miss Grace Helen Kenney, of No. 1123 West Sixth street, has returned from a two month visit with friends in Michigan, Chicago and Kansas City.

Mrs. M. J. Taylor of No. 1024 Fourth avenue has gone to Kansas City, where she will visit friends.

LONGEST HORSE DRIVE.
"Jack" Werten Claims to Have Made It in Bringing Animals from Chicago to Los Angeles.

"Jack" Werten, the horse trader, who is anchored temporarily with his clan at Lamar and East Main streets, sets up claim for distinction as the only man who ever drove a band of horses from Chicago to Los Angeles—surely an unusual undertaking in these days of railroads. But this was only an incident in the life of the trader, who has spent the greater part of his life in a camp wagon, and who says he has handled more horses than any other man of 50 years in the United States.

Werten is a rover, but he has a remarkable reputation as a trader, and is given credit for knowing more of the fine points of horses than many men of high reputation in the communities he visits about once in so often. He is quiet and law-abiding, although, without a doubt, he is a wonder in the handling of a gun. Just because he is of a roving disposition and frequently comes in contact with the followers of "Bumby Rye," he says it is a mistake to imagine he is a gypsy. Far from it, it is part of his business to travel this way or a stage, or a Brazilian," said Werten yesterday. "I've got no use for foreigners. They got no business in this country. I was born here, and I intend to stay here 'till I die. Why can't they stay in their country?"

Werten sighs for the good old days when everybody wanted a horse. The automobile is driving him out of business, he says. He made a comfortable sum as a "mule scaler" during the Egyptian War. When mules were selling at top prices, Werten shipped the animals from California to Missouri, where they were sold to traders, who turned them over to English government. The California mules found their way to the Sudan, and the English found his way into "Jack's" pockets.

MUSIC AND STAGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Padovani, the director and impresario, complimented him heartily on his artistic work. A morning paper, palpably copying some one else's notice—gave the credit to the man, who acted as first

Miss Katherine Bunn, handsome young soprano who has been an Orpheus feature for two weeks. It is reported that Miss Bunn will return to the Coast shortly with a larger production.

The sale of seats for Sousa's local engagement at the Auditorium October 22 and 23, will commence at the Fitzgerald music house this morning.

The soloists with Sousa are Miss Powers, violinist; Miss Lucy Allen, soprano; and Herbert L. Clarke, cornet.

The Sousa Band has always pleased Los Angeles audiences and this year additional talent is promised, which will increase its former musical efficiency.

One of Sousa's new compositions which will have a feature is "Powhatan's Daughter," a characteristic piece apropos of the Jamestown Exhibition. It has found favor with eastern critics and the public.

Adolfo Piccini, Ester Ferrabini and Olinto Lombardi will sing before the Ebell Club, November 4.

Three Chinese Suspects Are Held for the Killing of Lum Sing and Wong Goo Kor.

Investigators over the bodies of Lum Sing and Wong Goo Kor yesterday afternoon brought to light no new facts concerning the shooting, during the long feud in Chinatown Friday night.

A verdict of death from gunshot wounds, inflicted by a person to the jury unknown, and fired with homicidal intent, was as near as the jury attempted to get to a verdict.

Three members of the Hop Sing Tong are now in jail charged with the killing. All the men were identified by Lum Sing. Twenty Chinese suspected by the police were taken before the dying man at the Clara Barton Hospital Saturday afternoon. Lum picked out the three men, who, he said, were responsible for the shooting.

Unless the members of the Hop Sing Tong call for his body today, he will be buried in the pauper graveyard at the expense of the city. It is thought improbable, however, that the Chinese will permit such burial.

Wong Goo Kor was a "hophop" or opium smoker of the worse type, and his friends are trying to collect enough money to bury him.

Complaint charging murder will be filed in Police Court today against the men accused by Lum Sing.

ADDING TO ITS RANKS.
Despite threats of labor unionists, the Los Angeles Bricklayers' Association is steadily adding to its ranks.

Last night a routing meeting was held, and ten new members were admitted, making a total of fifty-two active members. It was reported that only two of the members are out of work.

The independent organization is meeting with much support from contractors who appreciate the services of high-class employees, who act upon their own initiative.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS.
The Massachusetts Society enjoyed a social at its hall last night. The program was: Reading, Mrs. F. D. Collins; piano solo, George R. King; reading, A. E. Bueber; Mrs. Ella M. Grant gave an interesting account of her recent trip to the Bay State. Light refreshments were served.

partition between the jewelry store and the Ennis clothing house. Ennis estimates the loss to his stock at $3000.

The fire must have started from the wiring about the motor," said W. R. Maeder, manager of the jewelry store. "There was nothing in the rear room. I am positive, which could have caused it. To the stock stored in that room the loss is about $2000. Nearly all of our stock in the front room is in show cases, but I believe that the damage from smoke and water will be about $5000.

The stock of the Boston Optical Company, owned by Kyte & Granicher, was damaged about $1000. All losses were fully covered by insurance.

The building was much damaged in the rear of the store, but no one would venture an estimate upon the amount of loss.

Two chemical engine companies nearby captured at First and Spring streets when one of the horses fell in making the turn. The wagon dragged the animal some distance. Slippers, payments caused a horse attached to No. 2 to fall at Spring and Third streets. It was severely cut.

No inconvenience was experienced at Elder's Hall. A thin cloud of smoke broke through the second floor, but was not disagreeable enough to cause members to leave.

The theater crowd watched the flames as they were taken down the box office was besieged with patrons who demanded "rain checks." The theater filled with smoke, but no damage was done.

While crawling on his hands and knees into the burning jewelry store, Assistant Chief O'Donnell sustained cuts on his hands and knees. He continued at work, however, and later was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

W. S. Taylor and wife have returned from a trip of eight weeks through the south, including the Jamestown Exposition, and visits to Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia, and cities of the Middle West. They received many inquiries concerning Southern California, and found all western trains crowded with people bound for the Coast.

If you want a paying investment, remember that the thing to sell is the thing the people want to buy.

Don't Pass Belle Vernon

The free water alone is an asset without a peer. The land itself stands without an equal at the price.

No Other Terms So Fair

When you buy an acre at Belle Vernon, you buy just as much insurance. It is insurance against hard times. Insurance against sickness, accident or death. An acre of that land with that water will stand forever between you and adversity. The income from it in berries, vegetables and poultry will maintain your family or meet your payments. By and by when the land becomes too valuable for your home you can cut it up into lots and sell each one for more than the acre costs you today.

No Other Home Place Offers Half so Much, and This is Only 20 Minutes From Sixth and Main

Only 20 minutes on two of the fastest railways in America. Cars every 8 minutes from my office. Every modern home-like advantage. Good schools, churches, banks, and all kinds of stores are near by—everything just like town and prices. $250 FOR AN ACRE—ONLY $20 DOWN. FREE WATER AT YOUR DOOR. FREE EXCURSIONS EVERY 8 MINUTES.

MEN REAL STARS OF "LA BOHEME."

IN A THOROUGHLY artistic production of "Boheme" at the opera last night, the genuine stars of the east were Tenor Parola and Baritone Arcangeli.

Lina Bertozzi, who had not appeared before, was the Mimi. The Italian people account Bertozzi one of the greatest impersonators of the role, and in the dramatic side of it she was not less successful.

Lina Bertozzi is one of the best actresses that the company has yet produced. Her voice is a soprano of unusually beautiful quality, passionately warm in the lower tones, but in last night's production, at least, it was not always used with surety, and at occasional moments even without gracefulness. She is troubled, by a very slight vibrato, and her method of tone placement seems somewhat uncertain and changeable. Again, we are told that the Murgers, Puccini heroine was a fragile creature of exquisite and sylph-like beauty. But Bertozzi is not beautiful—and it is not unkind to say that, either, for doubtless she possesses many intrinsic qualities of far greater worth than mere physical charm.

But the audience was thankful that Bertozzi was an infinite improvement over the astonishingly ancient Mimi of last year's Lambarini company. Her singing was a real improvement, and her acting was a real improvement.

SHAKE IT WELL IN A BOTTLE.

DIRECTIONS TO MIX A SIMPLE PRESCRIPTION FOR KIDNEYS.

Splendid harmless recipe to be mixed at home; also tells how to find out if kidneys are inactive and what to do to get relief—What causes Rheumatism and how the simple home mixture relieves.

A well-known authority states that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity, often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance companies always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made by every man and woman at least once each year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand overnight; next morning, if there is a reddish-brown sediment, or white, fleshy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home.

Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

Another big deal. The Mammoth Shoe Store Buys the Entire Shoe Stock of the Don Marche Le Sajebrs. COMPANY.

The Trustee of the Don Marche, Le Sage Bros. Co., sold the entire shoe stock of that concern to The Mammoth Shoe Store, after attempting to close it out at retail. It was a big transaction, as the stock originally inventoried at about $70,000. The price paid was a mere bagatelle, not enough to cover the cost of the leather in the shoes. One of the proprietors of the Mammoth Shoe Store said today that he would sell the entire stock at less than half price. Le Sage Bros. were well and favorably known as dealers in reliable footwear and the sale of their immense stock at even half price means a chance for money saving such as rarely comes.

ANY day's a good day to come here and get acquainted with Selz Royal Blue shoe. You'll never get acquainted with any better shoes. They're made right, for fit, for style and for long service. You get a positive guarantee of it with every pair.

And they'll cost you $2.50 or $4.00; whatever price you pay, they're worth it.

ARIZONA. LINING UP OF CRACK SHOTS.

ANNUAL SHOOT OF TERRITORIAL SPORTSMEN ON.

Come from Many States to Make Bulletpoints—Affairs of Lured Corporation Are in a Sadly Mixed-up Condition and Members Are Again Arrested—Fatal Explosion.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)
BIBBIE (Ariz.) Oct. 11.—October 11, 1930 and 12 at Douglas, will be held the annual shoot of the Arizona Sportsmen's Association. In addition to the scores of experts present from all parts of Arizona, from Los Angeles and San Francisco have come some notable shots, namely: Tom Marshall, Hip Justin, Dick Reid, E. Holling, Chris Gottlieb, Harry Hoyt, E. W. King, Fred Mills and Edward Heidt. All save Mills and Heidt are in the employ of different powder houses. They have been attending conference all along the Coast. While in Tucson Mr. Heidt was given the post of honor at a badger fight arranged especially for his benefit.

MIXED-UP AFFAIRS.
Assignees Harrington, of the corporation of Duesy & Overlock, has submitted a statement showing liabilities of $17,142. Opposed to this are assets amounting to $17,361, of which the assignee sets aside $12,593 as worthless. $4,012 is doubtful, and $4,856 as good, giving the creditors something like 20 per cent, on the basis of the solvent credits. It has been found that Harry Duesy personally is indebted to the firm in the sum of $25,000, and that James A. Gibbs, the cashier, has overdrawn $16,000. On the books also was found an account believed to be a dummy in the name of William Klasinger, overdrawn $12,000.

At a meeting of creditors held in the Orythem Theater, was submitted an offer of L. J. Overlock to pay $32,000 cash into the business in order to tide it over the present crisis. The offer was scores in number and many who considered themselves more than well-to-do at the time of the failure, now are bankrupt, and this is in addition to heavy losses known to hundreds of townspeople who dealt in stocks on margin.

Last night Harry Duesy and James A. Gibbs again were arrested for felony, though already awaiting the action of the grand jury on a charge of embezzlement, under bonds of $5000 each. The latest charge concerns the appropriation of $2523 of the moneys of the Anderson-Apache Copper Company. Bail has been demanded from Gibbs in the amount of $5000, and from Duesy in the sum of $5000. The latest determination of the creditors appears to be that the firm shall be thrown into bankruptcy, and there is a strong disposition to reject the offer made by Overlock.

BLOWN UP.
A half dozen Mexican laborers were injured by the premature explosion of ARIZONA. A Blast on the Street Railway Grade Near Lowell, yesterday. One of the men, whose name cannot be learned, was killed almost instantly under very peculiar circumstances. He would have escaped without any special injury had he not been carrying at the time a kind of black powder. The concussion or flying particles ignited the powder, with the result that the side of the man's body was fairly blown in. One of the other Mexicans may die if his injuries, but the rest are expected to recover.

ARIZONA NEWS NOTES.
Florence Perez has been arrested at Cananea and returned to Agua Prieta, where he will be tried for the murder of his wife, who was found dead in the road near the international line, her body horribly smashed.

A timber man, Antonio Banke, was killed on the 80-foot level of the Consolidated mine at Tombstone by a falling boom in the mine. He was employed by the city. The City Council of Douglas has passed a new anti-gambling ordinance, prohibiting any kind of gambling in any saloon, even though the stakes be for drinks or cigars. Another Douglas ordinance forbidding children in the public street.

Prof. James Douglas, who arrived in Bisbee for a business partner, John D. Shaffer found his sister, Mrs. L. L. French, whom he had not seen for twenty-nine years. The reunion came yesterday at the home of Dr. G. Cox, Pico street and Westlake avenue, where Mrs. French is a guest. When Mrs. French read in the Sunday Times the proposition offered by Shaffer, she determined to accept the business opportunity. She answered the advertisement and gave her address.

Pate caused Shaffer to lay aside the bundle of letters in his morning mail yesterday and select the one from Mrs. French. He called on her promptly, and found his sister. Both were overcome with surprise at the unexpected meeting.

Stranger even than the sudden meeting of yesterday is the fact that the two had lived within a block of each other for a month without ever having met. Shaffer was registered at a Hill street hotel and Mrs. French had been in the city for some time.

MINER ADVERTISES FOR PARTNER AND FINDS SISTER.

Mrs. Lizzie French Meets a Brother Whom She Had Not Seen for Nearly Thirty Years, and Decides to Become His Business Mate—All's Well That Ends Well.

Through a "liner" in The Times a business partner, John D. Shaffer found his sister, Mrs. L. L. French, whom he had not seen for twenty-nine years. The reunion came yesterday at the home of Dr. G. Cox, Pico street and Westlake avenue, where Mrs. French is a guest. When Mrs. French read in the Sunday Times the proposition offered by Shaffer, she determined to accept the business opportunity. She answered the advertisement and gave her address.

FAILS TO END LIFE.

Despondent Young Woman Leaps Into Eastlake Park, but is Rescued by Attendants.

Sick and despondent, Miss Emma Yeager, a domestic employed by Dr. A. Wann of No. 261 North Griffin avenue, attempted suicide yesterday morning by jumping into the lake at Eastlake Park.

The young woman came here from Iowa several months ago. She was quite ill at the time, and Dr. Wann took her into his household so that he might give her almost constant attention. On Sunday she brooded over her condition, and decided to end her suffering.

Early yesterday morning she boarded a car for Eastlake Park. Arriving there she hurried toward the lake and leaped from the bank into deep water. Park attendants William Simpson and G. W. Cavarrubian witnessed the act. One of the men jumped into the water and dragged Miss Yeager to land. Together they worked over her for half an hour until the arrival of the patrol wagon.

Later in the day it was announced at the home of Dr. Wann that Miss Yeager had suffered only slightly from her ducking.

MASS FOR EDUCATOR.

Notable Ceremony Will Be Performed at St. Vincent's Catholic Church Today.

A requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Vincent's Catholic church this morning at 10 o'clock, for Rev. Dennis J. Healy, who died in this city October 12, 1908. Students of the college will attend in a body, and the music will be furnished by the priests' choir. Very Rev. J. S. Glass will be celebrant, assisted by Father D. J. Hurley and Father J. E. Lilley, as deacon and sub-deacon.

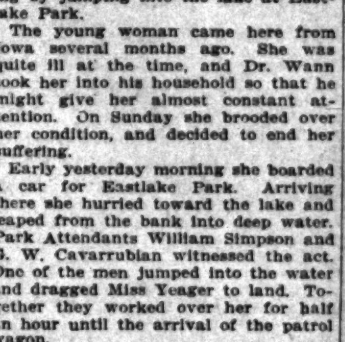

The deceased, Father Healy, was one of the trustees of the college, and held the position of prefect of studies for twelve years, and was appointed on the board of the diocesan school for Bishop County, who was himself for many years rector of the Catholic University of America.

Important Railroad Changes.
On October 13, new agency station, Leland, Nevada, 14 miles from Lodi, Cal., will be opened for handling freight and passenger traffic. This new station is the nearest railroad station (13 miles) to the Los-Angeles-Mission Valley line, California. Through tickets can be purchased at any Santa Fe Route ticket office.
